OPENING
We all have questions when it comes to our faith. That’s ok. In this sermon series, we’re looking at some of the big questions a lot of people have with Christianity. We believe that God is not afraid of our questions, instead, he encourages us to press into them and search for truth. Continuing over the next two weeks, we’ll do that. What other questions do you have? Let’s talk about them. Be sure to keep them in mind for May 20/21, when you can submit them to be discussed in the final “You Asked For It” sermon, an open Q & A with the pastors.

PRAYER
Open your time together with a moment of prayer. Invite the Holy Spirit into your conversation, and ask God to give you wisdom and discernment as you read Scripture and discuss your faith. Trust in him to guide you.

THE SERMON
Take some time with your group to recap the message you heard this weekend before jumping into the questions. If you missed anything, you can watch the service again online. Here are a few questions to help get your conversation started. Did you attend a worship service? If so, which one? Who was preaching? In your own words, what was the message about? Did you have any “Ah-Ha” moments (did you feel convicted, compelled, or inspired during the sermon?) What has been on your mind this week? Have you been able to apply the message to your everyday life?

INTO THE WORD
Take a few moments to read the Scripture verses shared during the worship service, along with a few others listed below. You can read these passages out loud as a group, or silently to yourselves.

“Parable of the Great Feast”
Read Luke 14:15-23
- Why is it important that we invite people to God’s banquet? What can you do to fill God's banquet hall? Do you feel you have done your all to get one more? Why do you think Jesus is making a point to gather people who say they are too busy to the banquet? Are you using any excuses?

“Telling others”
Read 2 Timothy 4:5
- Have you endured suffering in the name Jesus? If not, do people around you know your love Jesus? Who is the “one more” that you can save?
- What was the biggest thing that stuck with you from this message? How can you go about responding to the command of Jesus?

APPLICATION
This week, put yourself on the line for Jesus, even if it’s social awkward, to get one more! Jesus commands us throughout the New Testament to fill God's house. Pray that you have the courage to rise up and accept the mission
